

The Toast

set to the tune "Vive la Companie"

Solo

| | | |
|---|--|--|
|  | 1. Come bro - thers, we're mer - ry, I'll give you a toast, 2. At pre - sent we don't feel in - clined to suc - cumb, 3. Pierce, Doug - las and Brooks do not feel, I sup - pose, 4. So bum - pers of lag - er! We'll drink to Fre - mont, |  |
|  | |  |

3 CHORUS? Solo

| | | |
|---|--|--|
|  Mer - ry and wit - ty and No - bod - y likes to or Mer - ry or wit - ty or Fear - less and truth - ful and |  wise; tries. wise, wise; |  May we live till the South has acc - We've still got free thoughts and don't They find that they stink in the He is just such a man as true |
|  |  |  |

6 CHORUS?

| | | |
|---|---|--|
|  omp-lished its boast, care to be dumb, pop - u - lar nose, Free - men all want, |  Health - y and wealth - y and 'Tis nei - ther mer ry nor Pro - ving the pop - u - lace Fear - less and truth - ful and |  wise. wise. wise; wise, It Toombs The And |
|  |  |  |

swore that our spir - it it soon would sub-due, And bring us a-round to the has - n't quite yet, to the sound of his drum, Called his chat-tels to Old Bunk-er's out-rage on Sum-ner has failed to dis-close, That there's an - y par - tic - u - lar if with that toast you would coup - le a name, That is dear to Col - um - bia, to ol - i - garch's view; So may we all live till this thing it can do, pil - lar to come, And we think if they were there he'd wish them "tu hum;"

 lo - gic in blows. Ex - cept to turn mil-lions of Free-men to foes, Free-dom and fame, We'll just put a date on and drink it the same,

Wealth - y and health - y and wise
At least, such a wish would be wise!
 Hon - est, de - ter - mined and wise.
 Nob - le and hon - est and wise.